

11th Annual Benjamin C. Blackburn Scholarship Tea at The Frelinghuysen Arboretum

with Debbie Budd and Mary Ryan of

The Rose and Radish

You will not want to miss this presentation of acclaimed floral designers, Debbie Budd and Mary Ryan, of The Rose and Radish in Whitehouse Station, NJ. They bring their extensive art backgrounds to their work of creating signature pieces with a European feel. Their floral designs have been featured at Mansions in May, The Ryland Inn, The Pluckemin Inn and The Bernardsville Inn along with a plethora of private parties and corporate functions. In addition to their busy shop schedule, they enjoy presenting programs on floral design. Recent audiences include the Dutch Embassy in Washington D.C. Please join us to greet spring with this charming and entertaining afternoon's program, following which we will enjoy a fabulous tea of finger sandwiches, signature tea punch and dessert.

DATE: Wednesday, April 7
TIME: 1pm
COST: $55. Friends members, $60. non-members

This event benefits the Benjamin C. Blackburn Scholarship awarded annually by The Friends of The Frelinghuysen Arboretum.