

Princeton Private Garden Tour

With Dig It! Magazine and
The Friends of The Frelinghuysen Arboretum

Morven Museum and Garden

Visit three private gardens and take a guided tour of Morven Museum & Garden. The private gardens feature a plant collector's garden specializing in the unusual and family-bred daphnes, 1890s original Dream Girl climbing rose (the predecessor of New Dawn), a historic sunny border of tall perennials, a mini-forest of China fir, and much more. Two gardens, designed by Ronni Hock, include an exciting, very private town garden with a contemporary formal, layered design featuring exuberant plantings and a miniature woodland. The next luxurious property has woodland garden, a flowering shrub border, a pool garden with tall perennials, sun and shade borders with lots of color, texture, and a narrow stream garden. Docent-guided tours at Noon and 2pm of historic gardens at Morven, former New Jersey Governor's Mansion, include a formal, grand lawn dotted with majestic trees, beds of heirloom 18th and 19th-century annuals, and a re-creation of Morven's early 20th-century Colonial Revival style garden. You may also visit the historic 1849 Prospect Garden at Princeton University with over 8,000 annuals in deep flower borders with perennials.

Don't miss this wonderful opportunity to see some beautiful and historic gardens right here in the Garden State! This is a "self-drive" tour. Be sure to wear comfortable walking shoes and be prepared to tour the gardens rain or shine.
