

Gingerbread in July

Many of you know Barbara Amabile from her fantastic entries at past Gingerbread Wonderland exhibits.

Yes, she created the Baby Grand Piano, the Grandfather clock, the Ferris Wheel, the 2007

"Santa's Desk," (complete with a "Good" and "Bad" file) and the 2009 German Christmas Pyramid.

Now, Barbara is back to share some of her secrets for success, resources and creative touches with a PowerPoint presentation and a Q&A session. If you plan to enter Gingerbread Wonderland or just want to start a holiday tradition in your house, you won't want to miss this class.

Barbara Amabile lives in Florham Park, NJ with her husband and three sons. Building entries for Gingerbread Wonderland has been a Thanksgiving tradition for the Amabile family since 1996.
