

Second Sunday Family Series

at The Frelinghuysen Arboretum
53 East Hanover Avenue • Morris Township, NJ 07962

In 2011, The Friends of The Frelinghuysen Arboretum are launching Second Sunday, its new series of family programs. Each month, on the second Sunday, celebrate the changing seasons with a different activity for families of all ages. Need a quick dose of nature? Drop in year-round for fun, hands-on activities designed for your family to do together. Families are encouraged to take part in a class, make something to take home and explore the gardens with their new found knowledge on the theme of the month.

1:00pm-3:00pm • $15. per family for members, $20. per family for non-members

Mad for Maple Syrup Sunday, February 13

Learn how maple syrup is made, taste samples, eat pancakes, tap tree, see a cooking demonstration and learn about all the ways maple syrup can be used. This is a family-friendly program appropriate for children ages 6 and up.

Native Plant Seedballs Sunday, March 13

Create habitat for our pollinating friends by making seedballs from clay and seeds. Come prepared to get dirty and have lots of fun and learn about native plants. This is a family-friendly program appropriate for children ages 5 and up.
