

Mosaic Trivet

Unleash your inner artist at
The Frelinghuysen Arboretum
353 East Hanover Avenue, Morris Township

Eleanor Parr DiLeo is back to teach us the basics of cutting, placing and gluing tiles. No art or mosaic experience is required. Eleanor will provide you with materials such as smalti, millefiori, metallic Van Gogh glass, stained glass, mirror glass, and glitter tiles to create your one-of-a-kind six inch trivet but feel free to bring any items from home to incorporate into your piece. An additional materials fee of $20 is payable to the instructor at the start of class. Eleanor is a member of the Society of American Mosaic Artists and has taught and exhibited her work at galleries here in New Jersey as well as out of state.
