Home School Days Beautiful Biomes Winter Series 2018

January 18 - DECIDUOUS FORESTS

February 1 - RAINFORESTS

February 15 - GRASSLANDS

March 1 - DESERTS

All classes are Thursdays 1-2:30pm

Add plant science into your home-school curriculum! These classes offer hands-on experiences that address NJ Science Standards in a unique and engaging educational setting.

Travel the world through plants and discover their diverse environments in this series. Cycle through a variety of stations, including making a biome terrarium and plotting your journey on a map. Finish with a guided walk to learn more about the featured biome. Parents are welcome to drop off their child or stay and participate. Dress for the weather.

$8 per student per class,
or $30 for the series of 4 classes

Grades 1-4

Pre-Registration is required
