Native Plant Month

The Frelinghuysen Arboretum

353 East Hanover Avenue, Morris Township, NJ

Deer Resistant Native Plants

Wednesday, June 6 · 7 p.m. - 8 p.m.

While no plant is deer proof, Michael Van Clef, owner of Ecological Solutions, LLC and Project Director of the NJ Invasive Species Strike Team will speak about native plants that deer often leave alone. He will also offer 'tricks and tips' to effectively grow non-deer resistant native plants.

This program is eligible for 1.0 Rutgers Master Gardener CEUs.

Cost: $20 per person.

Native Plants for Cut Flower Gardening

Friday, June 29 · 2 p.m. - 3:30 p.m.

Kathy Salisbury, Director of the Ambler Arboretum at Temple University and formerly President of the Native Plant Society of NJ returns for an in-depth, practical guide to the best native plants to grow for cut flowers.

This program is eligible for 1.5 Rutgers Master Gardener CEU's.

Cost: $25 per person.

What's So Great About...Native Perennials

Thursday, June 21 · 6:30 p.m. - 7:30 p.m.

Native perennials endure winter weather and return with vigor in spring or summer without much help from us. Tour the Lindner Perennial Garden to see an example of a well-tended perennial garden.

This program is eligible for 1.0 Rutgers Master Gardener CEU's.

Cost: $10 per person.
