The Friends of The Frelinghuysen Arboretum

notes from the board

2015 Arbor Day Awards

Monday, April 13 was a fine spring day – perfect for celebrating Arbor Day.

The Friends did so by presenting their Arbor Day Award to three worthy recipients.

Dorothy and Paul Hennessey have volunteered for almost 20 years at The Frelinghuysen Arboretum. Since they became members in 1993, they have contributed their time and energy to a variety of assignments. Dot has served on the Board, helped with many events and been a member of the Mail Crew. Together they worked as a team for many years at Gingerbread Wonderland.

Patricia Griffin has been a Volunteer since 1999. Volunteering in the library, Pat created lovely book exhibits for many years. She helped with the Plant Sale, the Harvest Show and has created many beautiful flower arrangements for the Haggerty Education Center and Volunteer events. The Friends have benefited from her considerable artistic talents as well as with her willingness to do any task required.

We thanked these Volunteers by planting trees in their honor and celebrated their accomplishments with a lovely lunch attended by their families and Board Members.

Sally Hensen
President

Dorothy and Paul Hennessey receive the Arbor Day Award while Anthony Lipovsky, Assistant Foreman, describes their tree.

A family member lends a hand.

Sally Hensen presents the Arbor Day Award to Patricia Griffin.

Alan Rigoletto

A Little Night Music

Evening is a lovely time in the Cottage Garden. Its bright colors and many textures take on a special glow as the sun fades. Enjoy this garden, the musical stylings of Alan Rigoletto, and a delicious dessert sampler from Matilda's Café. To reserve your place on the Waterwise Deck, please call Christina Renfer at 973-394-1100. Seating for this very special evening event is limited.

This program is presented with the generous support of CIE Tours International.

Date: Friday, July 17 and Friday, August 21

Time: 1:00 pm – 8:30 pm

Cost: $15 – please call 973-394-1100 to register.

Croquet Day

Learn croquet's English origins and take a turn with a mallet. The Rutgers Preparatory School's Croquet Team will be on The Frelinghuysen Arboretum's Great Lawn demonstrating the art of Croquet, a sport whose popularity soared during the Victorian Age. Get out your whites, or just wear a t-shirt and some flip flops, but do come and play. Presented as part of Focus on England.

Date: Sunday, August 2

Time: 1:00 pm – 4:00 pm

Cost: Free

The Potting Shed

Join the Horticultural Education staff every month for an informal look at some do-it-yourself garden projects.

On July 5, join Professional Floral Designer Marge Hulstrunk for a flower arranging demonstration. Marge will use flowers grown in the Cutting Garden at The Frelinghuysen Arboretum and put together some beautiful summer arrangements. Learn some floral arranging tips and techniques from the master herself.

Remember macramé? Well, Kokedama is the new hipster version! Join Superintendent of Horticultural Education Lesley Parness as she demonstrates the art of Kokedama on August 2. By wrapping a plant in a layer of bonsai materials and moss and tying it up with various strings, an artistic whole is formed that is a lot more than the sum of its parts! Get busy with all your little plantlings and make some Kokedama!

In September, Marge returns for a flower arranging demonstration showcasing seasonal fall arrangements.

Dates: Sunday, July 5, Sunday, August 2, and Sunday, September 6 – Reservations are not required. Rain cancels the program.

Time: Noon – 1:00 pm

Cost: Free to observe the flower arranging, and $5.00 to make a Kokedama

Grow, Cook, Eat: From Spade to Spatula

Go from spade to spatula each month with Horticultural Program Specialists Gwen Montgomery and Cynthia Triolo. The series focuses on a different garden vegetable every month during the growing season and offers growing suggestions, planting tips, information on pests and diseases, new varieties and recipes. In July, Perennial Herbs like sage, rosemary and thyme play a starring role. To trellis or not to trellis is the question when we take a closer look at cucumbers in August and melons are the focus for September. We'll have seeds, recipes and a tasting sample to get you motivated to get out in the garden and plant.

Each session in this series is eligible for 1.5 Rutgers Master Gardener CEU's.

If you like to eat as much as you like to garden and want to learn more about new and different varieties of vegetables, sign up today.

- July 15 – Perennial Herbs
- August 19 – Cucumbers
- September 16 – Melons
- October 21 – Kale and Collards
- November 18 – Winter Squash

Dates: See above

Time: 7:00 pm – 8:30 pm

Cost: $15 members / $20 non-members

GREAT SPEAKERS SERIES

Ruth Clausen and Essential Perennials

A good gardener's library is sure to include Ms. Clausen's first book, Perennials for American Gardens. Now, 25 years later, Ruth has written another soon-to-be classic recently published by Timber Press – Essential Perennials! Anyone who loves perennials will benefit from attending this talk. Trained in the UK, Ms. Clausen lectures widely and was Horticulture Editor at Country Living Gardener for many years. This program is part of The Frelinghuysen Arboretum's year-long Focus on England, but the plants Ruth highlights are all perfect for New Jersey gardens!

This program is eligible for 3.0 Rutgers Master Gardener CEU's.

Date: Sunday, September 20 – Register by September 13

Time: 1:30 pm – 4:30 pm

Pears are so versatile and delicious. We will make two desserts, a salad, a sandwich and even pickle a few in this cooking demonstration.

Date: Sunday, September 13 – Register by September 6

Time: 1:00 pm – 3:00 pm

Cost: $20 members / $25 non-members

7th Annual Herbal Vinegar Workshop

Herb gardens are at their peak in quantity and quality – so, it's the perfect time to make herbal vinegars. We provide herbs, bottles, labels, and trendy raffia ties. You learn how to make a perfect salad accompaniment, grilling and basting blend, or dessert finisher! Some popular blends of the past have included La Mer with white wine vinegar, Hunter's Blend, with robust herbs like tri-color sage, and Thyme in a Bottle with three kinds of thyme. Lesley Parness, Superintendent of Horticultural Education has taught hundreds of people how to make their own herbal vinegars and bring the bounty of their gardens to their tables all year long.

Date: Wednesday, September 30 – Register by September 23

Time: 6:30 pm – 8:00 pm

Cost: $36 members / $40 non-members (includes 3 bottles of vinegar and all materials)

Soap Making with a Master Herbalist

Soaps infused with scent and herbs are all the rage. Why not learn how to make your own? Master Herbalist Elizabeth Scholl will explain the history and basics of soap making. Then, you'll create two wonderfully scented bars to take home and enjoy. Register early as space is limited in this very hands-on workshop.

Date: Tuesday, July 21 – Register by July 14

Time: 10:00 am – Noon

Cost: $10 members / $12 non-members

A Tribute to Jane Packer: Floral Designer Extraordinaire

Witness the extraordinary talent of Marge Hulstrunk as she demonstrates some beautiful flower arranging techniques based on the late Jane Packer's innovative approach to floral design. Ms. Packer's name is synonymous with elegance, beauty and simplicity and she was well known for her arrangements for the fashion industry and British royalty. Learn to create some lovely arrangements in the "Packer style". This program is part of The Frelinghuysen Arboretum's Focus on England.

Date: Sunday, July 26 – Register by July 19

Time: 1:30 pm – 3:30 pm

Cost: $20 members / $25 non-members

Table Dressings: A Unique Vision

How do designers choose objects, fabrics and plants to create a mood for both indoor and outdoor dining? Artist, designer, and antique specialist, Linda Pastorino, demonstrates how she and her favorite designers have developed their distinct design vernaculars. Linda demonstrates how a single object can be the jumping off point to create a menu, mood and ambiance. Linda highlights the work of Bunny Williams, Carolyn Roehm, Dries Van Noten and other top international designers. Whether it is flower arranging, table settings, interior design or fashion, the common thread amongst these top designers is their love of gardens. A show and tell of fabulous table settings will be exhibited with an extensive source list. Be inspired – you can create your own signature style!

Linda Pastorino

Date: Sunday, September 27 – Register by September 20

Time: 1:30 pm – 4:30 pm

Cost: $15 members / $20 non-members

Movie Night – Numen: The Healing Power of Plants

Numen is a visually stunning documentary film focusing on the healing power of plants. It counterpoints beautiful imagery of medicinal plants with thought-provoking interviews with noted doctors and herbalists. The word "numen" means the presiding spirit or divinity of a place and the film is intended for herbalists, gardeners, medical practitioners, plant lovers – and everyone concerned about human and environmental health.

The history of humanity is the history of man's relationship with plants and Numen will inspire you to deepen your relationship with the natural world and will remind you of the healing made possible by re-embracing our place in the wider web of life.

This program is eligible for 1.5 Rutgers Master Gardener CEU's.

Date: Friday, September 11 – Register by September 4

Time: 7:00 pm – 8:30 pm

Cost: $5

Fall Garden and Gallery Tour at Wave Hill

Join the Friends for a relaxing fall day overlooking magnificent autumnal views of the Hudson River from the fabulous Gardens at Wave Hill. One of New York's treasures, Wave Hill is a 28-acre public garden and cultural center located in the Riverdale section of the Bronx. Theodore Roosevelt, Mark Twain and the great Italian composer Arturo Toscanini were just some of the famous people who once resided there. Focusing on seasonal highlights, an experienced Garden Guide will give us a one-hour tour of the gardens which include rare and unusual plants, specimen trees, rolling lawns and a beautiful pergola overlooking the river.

Also included will be a one-hour guided tour of the Glyndor House Gallery. Showcasing the work of both emerging and established artists in a unique environment, these exhibitions explore the dynamic relationships between nature, culture and site.

In between tours, we will enjoy sweeping views of the Hudson River and Palisades while eating lunch on the Terrace. Lunch will include salads, fruit, dessert, beverages and your sandwich choice. Registrants will be emailed lunch options for their selection.

Time to shop with the added bonus of a 10% discount is also included. Wave Hill's fabulous gift shop features a unique selection of nature inspired gifts from local artisans: soaps, ceramics, glass, jewelry, seasonal plants, and even honey from Wave Hill's own hives!

Date: Thursday, October 15 –
Register by September 28

Time: Bus leaves The Frelinghuysen Arboretum at 9:00 am and returns at approximately 3:30 pm.

between 9:00 am and 3:30 pm

Cost: $10 per family

2015 Friends Annual Award

Beverly Highfield

At the Friend's June 14 Annual Meeting, the Annual Award was given to Beverly Highfield.

Beverly has served as Treasurer for eight years. Under her tenure the Friends have added on-line registration and many other services, the development of which Beverly has played a major role in.

She has provided informed and responsible council for our organization, faithfully discharged her duties and has been a lot of fun to work with. The wide world of Horticulture would be nonexistent without the contributions of people like Bev.

The Board and the Staff will miss her bright smile and optimism. Keep "looking on the bright side," Bev!
