The Friends of The Frelinghuysen Arboretum

The Morris County Park Commission and The Friends of The Frelinghuysen Arboretum invite you to participate in the Morris County Community Garden Open Gates Weekend.

The goal is to showcase the beauty and diversity of Morris County's Community Gardens by highlighting the people, plants and planting techniques that make our gardens thrive as well as to foster civic engagement, support local food pantries and enhance the quality of life in Morris County, New Jersey.

Check arboretumfriends.org for more detailed information, including maps and directions to the 10 participating gardens.

notes from the board

The days are long, the sun is getting hot, and things are well underway in our gardens. We tend the plants we bought at the plant sale, and check for the first peas in the vegetable garden. The “Farm to Table” movement is winning devotees among foodies, environmentalists, and home gardeners alike. Join the crowd with the fun new series here at the Arboretum titled “Grow your Groceries,” which combines growing tips with recipes.

For more inspiration, be sure to check out the “Open Gates” program July 15 and 16. Roughly a dozen community gardens around Morris County are participating and open to the public for the second year of this popular event. Be amazed by the variety of familiar and exotic vegetables and herbs being grown, and find out how motivating it is to cultivate a plot alongside a dedicated band of fellow gardeners of all ages. Community gardens are a great place to make new friends, and share tips and produce. See the website for details about participating gardens: arboretumfriends.org/events.

Continuing the edible theme, we have a program by Constance Kirker in September on “Edible Flowers, a Global History.” Who knew that flowers featured in cuisines around the world date back many centuries! The following week is an inspirational talk by noted garden photographer and speaker Karen Bussolini titled “Herb Liberation.” Karen will show us how to use herbs throughout the landscape, and to exploit their beneficial roles in attracting pollinators.

Speaking of flowers, Marge Hulstrunk is back to present three flower arranging workshops in July and August. Marge is a professional floral designer and long-time volunteer coordinator at the Arboretum (now retired), whose creative talents are legendary among her many admirers at the Arboretum. Take one or more of these classes and then become a volunteer flower arranger at the Arboretum, where your creations will be showcased in the lobby or at special events. Marge’s classes fill up fast, so don’t delay.

Last but definitely not least, the Friends recognized some long-time staff and volunteers at the Arbor Day Awards ceremony April 10.

Steve and Sue George joined the Friends Board in 2004. They served as Bus Trip Co-Chairs for 10 years, and helped every year with the Blackburn Tea, the Plant Sale, the Gingerbread event, and served on the Finance Committee. A Serviceberry (Amelanchier x grandiflora ‘Autumn Brilliance’) was planted in their honor in the Lindner Garden. Also honored was Lesley Parness, recently retired Superintendent of Horticulture Education, for her many years of dedicated service and leadership at the Arboretum. A pink Korean Dogwood (Cornus kousa ‘Miss Satomi’) was planted next to the patio at the Lindner Garden. Congratulations and thanks to the Georges and to Lesley. We sincerely appreciate all that they have done for the Friends.

Judy Snow, President
Friends of
The Frelinghuysen Arboretum

Sue & Steve George (above) and Lesley Parness with husband Steve (left) were recognized at the 2017 Arbor Day Awards with trees planted in their honor at the Lindner Garden.

Gardenworks Horticulture Volunteer Morris County Park Commission

Do you like working outdoors?

Do you have an interest in gardening?

Would you like to increase your horticultural knowledge?

Come discover our Gardenworks program and get involved!

Gardenworks volunteers donate their time, experience, and skills to make valuable contributions to our public gardens. By working alongside our professional horticulture staff, volunteers assist in beautifying our arboreta. Volunteers perform tasks such as planting, pruning, propagating, edging, weeding and raking. This is a perfect opportunity to learn new horticultural skills while enjoying the company of fellow garden enthusiasts. Gardenworks begins in the early spring and continues into the fall season. Tools and refreshments are provided.

The Gardenworks Program runs as follows:

- Frelinghuysen Arboretum TUESDAYS 9:00 am – 12:00 pm
- Willowood Arboretum WEDNESDAYS 9:00 am – 12:00 pm
- Bamboo Brook THURSDAYS 9:00 am – 12:00 pm

Please contact Patti Millar, Horticulture Volunteer Program Coordinator, at pmillar@morrisparks.net or at 973-326-7629, for additional Gardenworks volunteer information.

Meet Ann Fahey

Ann Fahey has joined the Horticulture Education staff as the Assistant Superintendent of Horticulture Education. Ann has owned and operated her own business in landscape design and horticulture consulting for the past 20 years. She has developed and implemented botany and environmental programs for the Montclair State Gifted and Talented Program. In addition, she writes a monthly gardening article for a local magazine and does volunteer work using her education and horticulture skills to help the community.

Ann graduated from Rutgers University with a degree in Plant Science with a Horticulture option. She has her MBA from Montclair State University and recently obtained a certificate in Horticultural Therapy from the New York Botanical Gardens.

Ann is very excited about joining the Horticulture Education Department of the Morris County Park Commission. She looks forward to working with the great staff and meeting the many visitors of The Frelinghuysen Arboretum.

Cost: $65 members / $75 non-members

Are you looking for a worthwhile place to contribute your time and talents?

An opportunity to make a difference to the horticultural community? The Friends group is seeking members for the board and board committees who have skills in areas such as marketing, hospitality, garden travel, social media and technology, to name a few possibilities. An appreciation of the natural world and a willingness to volunteer some time are the only requirements! If you'd like to find out more, please contact: webmaster@arboretumfriends.org

This summer, don't forget about one of your member benefits – the reciprocal admissions program which offers free or discounted admission and/or other benefits at nearly 300 gardens throughout North America and the Cayman Islands. Take the list of gardens with you when you travel and your savings could easily recoup the cost of your membership! (http://www.ahsgardening.org/uploads/pdfs/2016_RAP_Members.pdf)

Meadow Walk at The Elizabeth D. Kay Environmental Center

Join botanist Jared Rosenbaum of Wild Ridge Plants for an engaging hike at the Kay Center's beautiful wildflower meadows. We immerse in the midsummer meadow flora and explore ecology, edible and medicinal species, and more. As we walk, we'll hone the skills to use Newcomb's Wildflower Guide to identify nearly every common wildflower in New Jersey – even if you have no idea what it might be.

The Elizabeth D. Kay Environmental Center is located at 200 Pottersville Road, Chester, NJ 07930.

This program is eligible for 3.0 Rutgers Master Gardener CEU's.

Date: Saturday, July 15 – Register by July 8

Time: 9:30 am – 12:30 pm

Zucchini-palooza All Ages

In honor of National Sneak Some Zucchini Onto Your Neighbor's Porch Day, come celebrate this versatile vegetable with an afternoon of zucchini related fun time. Confronted with an abundance of squash? Join us for the following activities designed to creatively deal with our surplus summer squash: Zucchini Races, Squash Toss, and kitchen hints are just some of the ways to celebrate this maligned garden producer. Bring your extra zucchini and it will be donated to the local food pantry.

Date: Sunday, August 6

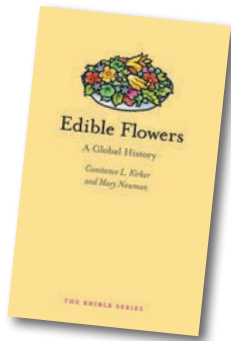

Time: 1:00 pm – 4:00 pm

Cost: $2 per person

Edible Flowers, a Global History

Most of us like to look at flowers, but why would anyone want to eat them? Author Constance Kirker's new book written with her sister, Mary Newman is a comprehensive look at this fascinating subject. Ms. Kirker discusses the long history of flowers as a tasty ingredient in a variety of cuisines. The Greeks, Romans, Persians, Ottomans, Mayans, Chinese, and Indians have been cooking with them for centuries, and today contemporary chefs use them to add something special to their dishes. Light refreshments and a book signing follow the lecture.

Date: Sunday, September 10 – Register by September 3

Time: 1:00 pm – 3:00 pm

Cost: $15 members / $20 non-members

Herb Liberation by Karen Bussolini

Herbs are such beautiful plants, useful in the garden as well as kitchen, so why sequester them in the herb garden? Use herbs throughout the landscape, in flower gardens, in vegetable gardens (to attract pollinators and other beneficial insects), as ground covers, specimens, in containers. Liberate them from their traditional roles, use your imagination – and bring them into your daily life. Karen Bussolini returns for a lively lecture on the topic of all things herb. Karen has been a gardener all her life and specializes in garden photography, writing, speaking and eco-friendly garden coaching/design. She is a NOFA (Northeast Organic Farmers Association) Accredited Organic Land Care Professional. Her garden has been featured in many publications.

This program is eligible for 2.0 Rutgers Master Gardener CEU's.

Date: Saturday, September 16 – Register by September 9

Time: 1:00 pm – 3:00 pm

Cost: $25 members / $35 non-members

What's So Great About...

A new monthly seasonal garden series taking an informal look at a specific aspect of the gardens of the Arboretum. These will be outdoor programs as much as possible so dress for the weather. Each program in the series is eligible for 1.0 Rutgers Master Gardener CEU's. They begin at 7:00 pm and cost $5 per person.

Wednesday, July 26 –

What's So Great About: Shade Gardens

Shade gardens can be a real challenge to many homeowners but there are actually many beautiful flowering plants that can brighten up a shady spot. Tour the shade gardens at the arboretum and be inspired to install some of these plants in your own garden.

Wednesday, August 16 –

What's So Great About: Cottage Gardens

This time of year the cottage garden at The Frelinghuysen Arboretum looks its best. It's freewheeling, not formal; generous, not stingy. Its abundance may be what you notice first but it is a distinct style that uses informal design, traditional materials, dense plantings, and a mixture of ornamental and edible plants. Tour the cottage garden and find ideas for what you can do at your own home.

Wednesday, September 20 –

What's So Great About: Ornamental Grasses

Ornamental grasses are beautiful perennial plants that add texture, color and movement to the garden. Ornamental grasses, like conifers and other evergreens, also provide interest in the fall and winter landscape, especially when backlit by morning or afternoon sun. Tour the collection at the arboretum to find the varieties you want to plant in your own garden.

*Would you like to receive a paperless version of Arboretum Leaves &
the Annual Report?*

Help us go green, and get your Arboretum Leaves sooner!

If you would like to receive Arboretum Leaves via email, please contact Margery Ennist at mennist@morrisparks.net. You will receive the next issue of Arboretum Leaves as a PDF instead of receiving a paper copy in the mail. PDFs will be emailed on the same day that the paper copies are mailed, so you will get Arboretum Leaves first!

Seedlings

Plant the seeds for a love of nature in Seedlings. In this program, preschoolers ages 3 – 4 and their adult caregivers will discover the wonders of nature. Each session features a different theme based on what is growing in the gardens. We begin with story time and complete the class with an outdoor exploration of the arboretum. Dress for the weather!

Date: Wednesday, September 13 and Wednesday, September 27

Time: 11:00 am – Noon

Cost: $5 per child, per program

Fly Away Home – Wednesday, September 13

It's still warm enough for our flying friends to be busy in the garden. We will search for butterflies and insects and talk about what they are doing this time of year.

The Grass is Always Greener – Wednesday, September 27

Explore the garden to discover the many varieties of grass in the arboretum and learn some of the surprising ways grasses are used. Run around on the grass and plant some unusual grass to take home.

Family Photo Scavenger Hunt

Grab a camera or phone and stop by the Haggerty Education Center for a nature photo scavenger hunt. Visitors can pick up the list, head outside and shoot away. Take a picture of every item, return to the Education Center and pick up your prize. Scavenger lists will change every month. The theme for July is "America, the Beautiful", August's is "90 Degrees" and September is "Cool Off". What a great way to explore the arboretum and to get the family outside in the fresh air.

Dates: Every day in July and August, Saturdays and Sundays in September

Time: Families welcome to participate any time between 9:00 am and 3:30 pm

Cost: $10 per family

Family I-Spy Walks

Explore the arboretum gardens using a different kind of tool each month and discover new ways of looking at flowers, trees, and other living things. You might never look at the garden the same way again. Each program costs $2 per person and is suitable for ages 5 and up. No registration is required. The programs are held from 2:00 – 3:00 pm on the following Saturdays:

July 15

Use a thermometer and discover the difference shade, location and plants can make when it's hot outside.

August 12

Tour the vegetable gardens and learn to use a scale to measure weight and volume.

September 16

Break out your phone and learn to use your compass app or borrow one for the tour.

Flowers Galore Tea and Tour

Step onto the beautiful grounds for a leisurely one-hour tour focusing on seasonal blooms. Bus Trip to the Chihuly Exhibit at the New York Botanical Garden

Join The Friends as we experience a guided tour of the breathtaking works of art created by world-renowned artist, Dale Chihuly, currently on exhibit at the New York Botanical Garden. Come and see the Garden's dramatic vistas as they become living canvases for his work, some of which have been created specifically for NYBG. Three new works, reflecting the interplay and movement of color and light, will enliven the water features of the Native Plant Garden and the Enid A. Haupt Conservatory's Tropical Pool. The Exhibit will showcase more than 20 installations of his brilliantly colored, shapes, as well as drawings and early works that reveal the evolution and development of Chihuly's artistic process during his celebrated career.

After the tour, explore any of the many other wonderful gardens this spectacular place has to offer such as the Rock Garden, Perennial Garden, Ladies Border and Seasonal Walk. You may also wish to visit the Home Gardening Center which includes a series of model gardens and display areas designed to demonstrate how to create a beautiful oasis in your own backyard. Included in the price is an optional narrated tram ride which offers an overview of the Gardens' 250 acres and its history with nine stops that allow you to hop off and explore areas of your choice.

Enjoy lunch on your own at the Pine Tree Café or the Hudson Garden and Grille, and don't forget to save time to visit the fabulous Garden Shop which offers plants, pots, books, botanical inspired jewelry, home accessories and more.

Date: Thursday, September 28

Time: Bus departs 8:15am SHARP from Arboretum parking lot and returns at 5:30pm
