

African Violet and Gesneriad Society of New Jersey
Announces Two Shows in One

“Singing Violets” an African Violet Society of America sponsored judged show.

“Singing Gesneriads” a Gesneriad Society sponsored judged show.

Frelinghuysen Arboretum, 353 E Hanover Ave, Morristown, NJ 07960

Saturday, April 13th, 1:30 pm - 4:00 pm

Sunday, April 14th, 11:00 am - 3:00 pm

The shows will include horticulture entries of African violets and their Gesneriad cousins, as well as entries in the design, photography, crafts and educational categories.

Our plant sales tables will feature plants from Lyndon Lyons Greenhouses, as well as a wide variety of member grown plants. There will also be an assortment of plant supplies for sale.

Our members will be happy to answer any questions you may have about growing African Violets and other plants in the Gesneriad family. We look forward to seeing you there.
