

A series of FREE public programs hosted by

Denville's Environmental Commission, Denville's Green Team and Rock Ridge Plant, Animal & Land Stewards

Eco-Action Series

Native Plants for Your Landscape:

Crucial Trees & Plants for Conservation of Northern NJ Ecosystems

by Jean Epiphan, Rutgers Cooperative Extension

Sunday, Feb. 22 at 2 PM - Meeting Hall, Church of the Savior (Virtual Option)

Turning Lawns into Living Landscapes: How to Create a Native Habitat at Home

by Erica Gormley, Summersweet Design

Sunday, March 1 at 2 PM - Meeting Hall, Church of the Savior

Not All That's Green is Good: How to Identify Invasive Plants & Reduce Harm

by Mike Van Clef, NJ Invasive Species Strike Team

Sunday, March 15 at 2 PM - Meeting Hall, Church of the Savior (Virtual Option)

Watershed 101: What's in the Water?

by Phoebe Galione, AmeriCorps Volunteer, GSWA

Tuesday, March 31 at 7 PM - Denville Library

Light Pollution: How to Protect the Nocturnal Environment

by Steve Mariconda, DarkSky International

Monday, May 4 at 7 PM - Denville Library

Registration Required:

Library Location Programs:

<https://www.denvillelibrary.org/>

(Events)

Church of the Savior Location Programs:

<https://forms.gle/J81TyBm1JsTdh8DCA>

or visit the "Denville Green Sustainability" Facebook page!

In cooperation with...

Rutgers Cooperative Extension, POWWW, and NPSNJ Morris Chapter

*All programs will be approximately 1.5-hr

Denville Library - 121 Diamond Spring Rd., Denville, NJ

Church of the Savior - 155 Morris Ave., Denville, NJ

Questions?

DenvilleGreen@gmail.com