Andalusia is located on a wooded promontory overlooking the Delaware River. Our visit will include a guided tour of the ancestral home of the Biddle family as well as a self-guided tour of the gardens and arboretum. Enjoy the rose garden and the Greek Walk with many colorful plants and flowers in bloom.

Please bring your own lunch and water/beverage to enjoy in the gardens or visitor center. There is no restaurant or snack bar on the premises. Transportation by deluxe motor coach, admission to the gardens and arboretum, the house tour, a snack and the bus driver's tip will be included in the cost of the bus trip. The bus will depart promptly at 9:30 a.m. from the Morris County Library parking lot (30 East Hanover Ave., Whippany) with a 4:30-5:30 p.m. return.
